THE DIAZ FORCES STILL IN CONTROL

Mexico Situation Improves and Peace Reigns Throughout Republic.

RUMOR OF BATTLE IS DENIED

No Trace of Madero Has Been Found. Believed That Revolutionists Have Fled—Gen. Villar Gets Advices.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 25.—There have been no developments today in the revolutionary situation and quiet reigns throughout the Republic of Mexico.

General Lamro Villar, commanding the forces along the Mexican border, has received such advices covering every point from Matamoras to Ciuadad Porfiria Diaz and on the American side everything is quiet.

General Villar has learned that reports of a battle had occurred today in the neighborhood of Eagel Pass, and that Prancis I. Madero had been wounded are untrue. The Mexican officers communicated with Col. Rena at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz and Col. Pena declared the stories baseless. He also said no trace of Madero had been found.

Capt. J. H. Rogers, of the Texas Rangers, returned from Minreaw, Texas, this afternoon and reprts tranquility in that vicinity. He says that any force of revolutionists which might have been in that neighborhood have either taken to the brush or crossed the river into Mexico. The ranger force of Capt. Rogers, together with that of the United States marshal and the United States army still remain on the scene to prevent any violation of the neutrality laws.

Among the passengers arriving in this city tonight from Monterey was Joseph Wheeless, a St. Louis attorney. Mr. Wheeless left Torreon, Mexico, Thursday evening and at that time conditions were normal. Mr. Wheeless has large interests in Mexico and says that the many stories circulated throughout the United States magnifying the importance of what he terms a minor uprising are seriously injuring business in the Republic.

Before leaving Torreon Mr. Wheeless visited Oaxaca, Mexico City, Gomez, Palacio, Lerdo, Parrall and other points and said that beyond uprisings of a minor nature, no disturbance existed and the government had little difficulty in quelling the mobs.

TOOK LIFE OF ELEPHANT.

Pays Penalty for Killing His Keeper in New York.

New York, Nov. 25.—It took 500 grains of cyanide of potassium, a deadly poison, to kill the Gypsy Queen, a trick elephant, this afternoon in execution of the death sentence passed on her for the murder of her keeper, Robert Schiel, on October 20th last. Less than one grain is ordinarily fatal to man and the first convulsive symptoms supervene almost before the victim can set down the glass from which he swallowed.

But the Queen swayed backward and forward, flapping her big ears, for ten minutes, before she showed the least uneasiness, and it was 44 minutes before she was pronounced dead.

The poison was given her in three pailfuls of bran mash in which had been sprinkled 100 capsules each of five grains of cyanide. She had been starved for 24 hours and ate greedily.

The Queen was 87 years old, born in Africa, and was one of the largest elephants in captivity. She weighed 7,660 pounds and stood eighteen feet, seven inches high. Of recent years her temper had not improved and last October she picked up an unaccustomed keeper, who had been warned not to go near her, slammed him against the wall of her cell and then trod him into pulp.

CANNON IN WASHINGTON.

Now Ready for Congress—Hopes Democrats Will Redeem Promises.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Philosophic and smiling, Speaker Joseph G. Cannon returned to Washington today. While mildly deploring the result of the recent election in which, he said, "a majority has made a mistake in giving our friends, the Democrats, control of the 62nd Congress," he added:

"With the responsibility it remains to be seen what they will do. I should be glad if they find themselves able to redeem their promises in the campaign—to rduce the cost of living and increase the price of labor."

Speaker Cannon does not expect the passage of much legislation in the forthcoming session, due to the scant time in which Congress will be enabled to act. He expects that the appropriations for the coming fiscal year will be in the neighborhood of one billion dollars. The Speaker is satisfied with the condition of the country, declaring that never before has the United States been so prosperous.

ARMY AND NAVY PLAY TODAY

Football Squad Arrive in Philadelphia For Annual Struggle—Officials From Washington to Attend—Details.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—With the arrival of the football squads from both West Point and Annapolis here today all is in readiness for the struggle between the Army and the Navy tomorrow on the gridiron at Franklin field.

The cadets and midshipmen, who will root for their teams, and the officials from Washington will not reach this city till tomorrow, but the hotel lobbies were filled tonight with distinguished officers of both branches of the service and prominent peope from all parts of the country.

President Taft will be unable to attend, Secretary Dickinson cannot be present because of the death of his son. Vice President and Mrs. Sherman are expected.

Both teams had their final practice this afternoon on Franklin field behind closed gates. First the navy players were given a run around the track and then put through a stiff drill in the various formations which they have been practicing. The Army squad were taken on the field and practiced signals.

Lieutenant Commander Berrien, who has charge of the Navy squad, said tonight:

"Douglas is the only man on the squad who is not in excellent condition and I hope that he will be able to get in the game."

Lieutenant Nelly head coach and officer in-charge of the West Point players, expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the members of his squad.

Indications are that ideal football weather will prevail tomorrow. Clear and cool weather is promised and one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a football game here is expected to be present.

Indignant Over Big Poole.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 25.—It was said here tonight that the superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point is highly idignant because the corps of cadets raised a poole of something like $3,000 to cover the midshipmen's deficit for a like amount on the outcome of tomorrow's big football game. Locally nothing has developed and it is not thought that the Military Academy officials will take any action in the premises.

All arrangements for the departure of the brigade of midshipmen and the usual Annapolis contingent for the game have been completed. The railroads will run several special trains in the morning, the first sections leaving at 8 o'clock. Interest in the game is at fever heat. Nearly every one here is looking for a Navy victory not alone because of the strength of the team, but because they feel that this is a navy year.

PACKERS MAKE THE RATES.

Testimony of F. W. Ellis About the Refrigerating Cars.

Boston, Nav. 25.—The running of refrigerating cars under an agreement between the railroads and the packing companies is a very profitable, but rather risky business, according to F. W. Ellis, vice president of the Armour Refrigeration Company, of Chicago, who testified before the Interstate Commerce Commission today.

The testimony of Mr. Ellis was brought out during the hearing on a petition for a reduction of refrigerating rates between Norfolk and Boston brought by Sweeney, Lynes & Company, produce commission merchants of this city.

Mr. Ellis stated that the refrigerating rates were fixed by agreement by the railroads and the Armour and Swift companies, although the railroads usually agree to the rates proposed by the packing companies. The rate from Norfolk was reduced from $51 a car in 1908 to $41.20 a car in 1909, which Mr. Ellis said was due to the marking of a three years' contract between the railroads and the icing companies. The commission merchants here want a still further reduction and rebates.

Interstate Commerce Commissioner Clements, who heard the case, took the matter under advisement.

BILBO CHARGES AGAIN.

Mississippi State Senator Appears Before Grand Jury.

Yazoo City, Miss., Nov. 25.—State Senator Theodore Bilbo related in detail to a jury today circumstances which he declared led to his charge that L. C. Dulaney paid him a sum of money in an effort to influence his vote during the senatorial caucus of the last Mississippi Legislature. In substance it was a repitition of his testimony before the grand jury which returned the indictment charging Dulaney with bribe-giving and later at a legislative inquiry. Dulaney is on trial in answer to the charge.

Senator Bilbo testified that he was approached by Dulaney and offered $1,000 if he would change his vote from former Governor James K. Vardaman to the successful candidate United States Senator Leroy Percy. Acting in the role of detective, he declares he consented, but did not altar his vote. He made public the alleged bribery immediately after the senatorial contest ended.

TAFT IS CHARGED WITH PARTIALITY

Indifferent Toward Mississippi Project, But Favors Ohio Waterway.

LIVELY SESSION AT ST. LOUIS

Report of President Kavanaugh Feature of the Day—Bitter Contests Between Factions of Various States.

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—Charges that President Taft is growing indifferent toward a deeper waterway for the Mississippi river, has favorable "leaning toward his own river" the Ohio, which was referred to as "official partiality" and contests between factions of States for representation on the committees, enlivened the first session of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway Association Convention, which was held here today.

President W. K. Kavanaugh, of the association, was cheered heartily by the delegates during the reading of his opening address, when he declared that President Taft has mistaken the sentiment of the Nation.

Mr. Kavanaugh charged that "by indirection" President Taft had caused the partial failure of the plans which seemed near success when the last river and harbor bill was passed.

He declared the President had mistaken the sentiment of the Nation and he urged the convention to strive for legislation so strong and definite as to be effective "despite indifference or unfriendliness from any quarter, however exalted."

The fight in the Illinois Republican party came to the surface when the delegation went into a caucus to elect a representative on the resolutions committee. United States Senator Lorimer's friends selected Congressman H. T. Rainey for the resolution committee and Governor Deneen's followers announced that they had chosen Isham Randolph. When the factions reported before the platform efforts were made to compromise on one man, but without avail, and the scene bordered on a riot. Delegates from other States gathered when Governor Deneen mounted a chair to still the tumult. The delegation was prevailed on to move to a far corner.

After an hour's wrangling it reported that Isham Randolph had been chosen for the resolutions committee and Congressman Rainey for the nominating committee.

Isham Randolph, of Chicago, told the convention the waterway question was not a political one. He declared in favor of fighting for the deepest channel obtainable—if not 14 feet, then 12 or nine. Edward A. Halsey, of Chicago, took a positive stand in favor of a 14-foot channel, saying that any one who did not stand for a channel of that depth ought not to be considered a waterway advocate.

Governor Deneen advised the convention not to assume a defiant attitude in advance of the report of the government engineers, who have completed a survey of the Mississippi waterway project. He said Congress must be asked for money and water.

Chicago was chosen the next meeting place of the convention.

ELEVEN MINERS ENTOMBED.

Explosion in Kentucky Mine—Believed All Are Dead.

Providence, Ky., Nov. 25.—Eleven coal miners, two white men and nine negroes were entombed in Mine No. 3, of the Providence Mining Company this afternoon following a gas explosion and it is believed that all are dead. The mine is a new one, the shaft being 100 feet in depth with only a few enteries. The explosion was so violent that little hope is entertained of the miners having escaped death. A rescue train from the mine rescue station at Linton, Ind., is on the way to the scene tonight and the comrades of the men entombed are digging, frantically to reach them. The explosion blew great masses of slate and stone far from the shaft. A mule blown out of the shaft alighted one hundred and fifty feet away, still alive.

CIRCLE WORLD ON STILTS.

Two Germans Will Make Attempt for Wager of $5,000.

New York, Nov. 25.—For a wager of $5,000 two German acrobats will attempt to circle the world on stilts. They obtained a promise of police protection from Commissioner Cropsey this afternoon on the first leg of their journey through the crowded streets from City Hall to the Jersey City ferry and from there they will make their way to Philadelphia. The hour of the start has not yet been decided.

The young men are Albert Marder and Hans Hoeledamp, until recently employed as stewards on a trans-Atlantic liner, and the purse they hope to win was raised by the Steamship Stewards Verein of Hamburg.

THE RATE INCREASE HEARING

Baltimore Youth Tangles Up Commission and Attorneys—Figures Show Big Profits in Freight Traffic—Features.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Discussions of millions of dollars as though the amounts were mere bagatelles, a 19-year-old Baltimore economist tangling up the commission and the galaxy of railroad counsel representing all the Eastern trunk lines, and a maze of figures designed to show how wonderfully profitable is the freight traffic nowadays, were among the features of today's session of the rate increase hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Henry C. Barlow, of Chicago, director of the Chicago Association of Commerce; Ezra E. Williamson, of Cincinnati, commissioners of the Receivers and Shippers' Association of that city, and B. B. Burgunder, of Baltimore, not yet out of his teens, whose command of railroad stock statistics headed off any attacks on his testimony by cross-examination were the day's witnesses.

Mr. Burgunder was put on the stand to testify to his own statistical computations concerning the "rights of stockholders."

Mr. Barlow believed in a horizontal increase in rates in the event any were necessary, which he was not willing to concede.

Mr. Williamson fled a mass of memoranda replete with figures intended to show the immense strides the railways have made in the direction of filling the pocketbooks of those controlling them. He referred particularly to two arms of the Pennsylvania system, the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, and St. Louis. He cited figures which he said, showed the excessive earnings of the Fort Wayne road. Mr. Williamson, like the previous witness, declared emphatically that the railroads did not need any advance in rates.

He showed how the Fort Wayne line, according to his statements had built up a $20,000,000 property to a $60,000,000 property; how after taking care of fixed charges the Pennsylvania company guaranteeing 7 per cent. for virtually a thousand years, the Pennsylvania railroad had $43,000,000 of guaranteed stock of the Fort Wayne, which was "velvet," as the witness suggested.

MOB KILLS NEGRO IN SOUTH CAROLINA

DAUGHTER OF A PLANTER

Little Mountain, S. C., Nov. 25.—With his body riddled with bullets and a lantern hanging above his head, Flute Clarke, a negro lies dead tonight on the side of Little Mountain. He was lynched shortly after 10 o'clock for the murder and attempted assault of the 14-year-old daughter of a well-to-do planter of this section.

The crime was committed this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the yard of the home of the girl, while she was alone. Her head was almost severed with a knife, following a fierce struggle with the negro. The negro was employed by the father of the girl and had worked on the place for twelve years.

There was at least one thousand men in the mob that completely eluded the officers of several counties who had gone to the scene to get the negro. Following the crime the negro came to the house and assisted in carrying the body of the child to the house. He was later spirited away to a secluded spot after making a confession, it is alleged, to a small crowd.

The members of the mob were informed of the alleged confession. While the officers searched the mob took another direction, coming upon the negro and literally shot his body to pieces.

This afternoon the mother left the girl alone in the house to visit a nearby neighbor. Several moments after the young brother of the girl coming home he found his sister near a cellar door. He gave the alarm. The father was in the field nearby. The news of the crime spread quickly over the counties and a large crowd soon gathered.

The negro in his confession is alleged to have stated that he went to the house for water and asked the child to bring him some potatoes to the well. When she brought them he made his murderous attack. He said that the girl screamed and said she was going to tell her father. He then cut her throat.

An inquest will be held over the bodies of the girl and the negro tomorrow.

LINERS RAN INTO STORMS.

Two Carried Out of Their Course.—Thrilling Experience.

New York, Nov. 25.—The White Star Liner Romanic made port here this afternoon after a hard fight with a gale that blew her twelve miles out of her course. Heavy seas smashed in several of her port lights, swept her decks of loose gear and flooded three cabins. Two passengers, Miss E. A. O'Connell, of Marlborough, Mass., and Marcellus Holbrook, of Springfield, Mo., were hurled across the saloon and painfully cut and bruised. Robert Bachause, a steward, was carried down from the companionway by the rush of water. There was almost a panic in the steerage.

The Keonig Albert, of the North German Lloyd line, in today from Mediterrean ports, also reports very heavy weather. On Wednesday, when 600 miles east of this port she struck a terrific blow that carried her 40 miles out of her course, smashed much cabin furniture and severely wrenched the leg of William C. Garland, a retired merchant of Louisville, Ky.

Petitioners want the primary legalized when two United States Senators will be nominated in the Summer of 1911.

GALLAGHER ON FOUR COUNTS

Indictments Against Would-be Assassin of Mayor Gaynor—Prisoner Will be Arraigned Next Thursday Morning.

New York, Nov. 25.—The Hudson county (New Jersey) grand jury voted unanimously this afternoon to return their indictments against James J. Gallagher, the discharged city employe, who shot and wounded Mayor Gaynor on August 9th last.

Two indictments will charge assault with intent to kill, first on Mayor Gaynor, second, on William H. Edwards, commissioner of street cleaning. It was "Big Bill" who seized Gallagher's arm and slammed him to the deck of the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, where the shooting occurred. The two remaining indictments will charge carrying a concealed weapon in each assault case.

Edwards and other city employes, who struggled with Gallagher testified before the grand jury as did others who witnessed the shooting. The jury adjourned until next Tuesday at 2:30 P. M. when the indictments probably will be handed up in the Supreme Court. Gallagher, it is understood, will be arraigned on Thursday morning, when his counsel will enter a plea of insanity.

Gallagher gave out a statement tonight telling what a delightful Thanksgiving he had in the Hudson county jail and declared that he was more than delighted that there was no cause of sorrow nor anything but thanksgiving in the family of Mayor Gaynor.

SECRETS OF CORPORATIONS.

Will be Safeguarded by the Treasury Department.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Secrets of corporations and the intimate details of their business are to be safeguarded by the government under the law passed by the last session of Congress providing for the filing of returns with the Treasury Department for the purpose of assessing Federal taxes. The question of publicity of such returns has been a question of vital importance to the big business interests. Their fears were set at rest today when Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh issued a ruling which shuts out from perusal of the reports the idly curious or those who might benefit unfairly by the study of them.

In the first place, Mr. MacVeagh decrees that the records of the corporations filed with the Department shall be kept under guard in the Department itself, and that no outside agent of the Department under any circumstances, shall divulge the contents of the reports. Neither are any copies of the reports to be taken or furnished except to the corporation making the return or to its properly accredited attorney.

AMNESTY GRANTED NAVAL MUTINEERS

Brazilian Chamber of Deputies Passed Resolution After Stormy Session.

THE VESSELS HAVE PUT TO SEA

Their Destination Unknown—Capital Slept With Guns of Its Own Navy Trained Upon It.—Settlement Expected.

Rio aJneiro, Nov. 25.—The chamber of deputies this evening, by a vot of 114 to 23, passed a resolution granting amnesty to the mutinous sailors on board the battleships Minas Geraes and Sao Paulo, the coast defense ships Marshal Floriano and Marshal Deodora, and the scout s...p Bahia. The Senate had unanimously passed the measure Thursday.

Immediately after the lower house had voted to pardon the sailors for having mutinied and killed several of their officers and thrown shells into the city, President Fonseca authorized Deputy Carvalho to visit the Sao Paulo and confer with the mutineers.

The decision of the chamber was not reached until there had been stormy scenes and several fisticuffs on the floor.

Meantime the mutinous vessels which had been waiting outside the bar since noon for a signal to come put to sea and disappeared. Their destination was not made known.

The capital slept last night with the guns of its own navy trained upon it. The mutineers remained seemingly masters of the situation.

Toward 1 o'clock this morning one of the mutinous fleet fired upon the arsenal.

The scout cruiser Deodora has joined the battleships Minas Geraes and Sao Paulo and the scout cruiser Bahia in the revolt.

Today's session of the chamber of deputies was awaited with anxiety but its vote of amnesty and the surrender of the mutineers cleared the situation. The demands of the naval men were granted.

Last evening the Sao Paulo and the Bahia withdrew from the harbor, supposedly because they feared a night attack from the loyal torpedo boat destroyers. The Minas Geraes, however, remained opposite the government palace and was joined by the cruiser Deodora.

For several hours everything was quiet. Then watchers on shore noted activity on board the Deodora and an hour after midnight the small guns of the Deodora awoke the town. It was first thought the revolting vessels were making a combined attack on the city.

Story of the Mutiny.

About 10 o'clock on the night of November 22nd, as Capt. Neves, commanding the battleship Minas Geraes, came back from dinner on board the French training ship Dogoay Trouin he heard a violent uproar and a fusillade of shots. It was the crew of his vessel who had revolted. Capt. Neves and two other officers offered resistance to some of the sailors and were killed, and one officer was mortally wounded. The mutinous crew, meanwhile, shouted, "long live liberty." The insurrectionary movement then broke out on the other Brazilian dreadnought, the battleship Sao Paulo and the scout ship Bahia. All the officers having been landed, a plain sailor of the first class, named Jean Candido took command of the squadron.

The mutineers sent a message by radiograph to President Fonseca, setting forth their claims for an immediate abolition of corporal punishment on board ship, an increase in their pay and diminution of their work. The statement added that a bombardment of the city and other ships in the harbor would follow the refusal of the demands.

The government refrained from replying to the ultimatum of the mutineers and a moderately severe fire was soon opened by them upon the city. The inhabitants of Rio Janeiro were thrown into confusion by the suddenness of the event. On the morning of the 23rd there was further firing on the city by the mutineers, but little damage resulted.

It has been learned that besides Capt. Neves and the two officers, several sailors also were killed.

When the mutineers took control of the warships, the vessels steamed around the bay almost all of them flying the red flag of revolt. The torpedo boat destroyers remained loyal and anchored in the farthest corner of the bay.

At 7 o'clock on the morning of the 23rd the Minas Geraes, the Sao Paulo, the Bahia and the battleship Floriana crossed the bar and fired on the fortress which refrained from responding. The squadron took a position opposite the city and fired the big guns from all quarters of the ships. A shot entered a house in the center of the city, killing two children and a woman.

About 1 o'clock in the afternoon, Deputy Carvalho, a retired naval officer, visited the Sao Paulo and talked with the mutineers. When the deputy returned to the Chamber of Deputies,

HUNDRED YEARS OF PEACE.

Suggestions for United States.—Great Britian Celebration.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 25.—The American Peace Society gave to the press today a collection of suggestions received by it from publishists and educators in the United States, Great Britian and Canada in regard to the methods of celebrating the anniversary of the hundred years of peace between Great Britain and the United States since the war 1812.

John P. Foster, formerly Secretary of State and Professor John Bassett Moore, of Columbia University, propose that the celebration be consummated by a treaty of unlimited arbitration between the United States and Great Britian.

Sir Edward Fry, chairman of the British delegation to the second Hague Conference recommended that the precednt of disarmament on the Great Lakes should be extended as well as commemorated.

Lord Courtnery Penwith, president of the International Peace Congress at London in 1908 advises that the historic agreement for disarmament on the Lakes be followed by the removal of customs houses along the American-Canadian border to seduce the cost of living and do away with the last pretext for guardships and causes for international conflict.

SAYS SHE'S RARE WOMAN.

Mrs. Martin Shouted Out to Alienist.—Murder of Daughter Charged.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 25.—"I'm a rare woman," shouted Mrs. Caroline Martin today at Dr. C. Beling, an alienist who, in trying to prove her sane, had just testified that pre-senite, delusional insanity is of recent recognition, and covers exceedingly rare symptoms.

Her counsel contends that she is insane, but Mrs. Martin, although she must stand trial for the murder of her daughter, Ocey W. M. Snead, the East Orange bath tub victim, if she is found sane, has fought him from the outset of the present hearings. "I am neither insane nor guilty," she has repeated time and again.

The aged woman almost shrieked at Beling as he sat in the witness chair. "You are called the illustrious crack-a-jack," she said. Why didn't you tell the truth? Little you know of an American woman. You're a foreigner. This is an outrage on the tax payers, this great expense to convict a woman who never did any wrong." The hearing was not concluded.

New York, Nov. 25.—Julius Messinger, a stepbrother of Belle Elmore, the actress for whose murder Dr. Hawley H. Crippen was executed in London on Wednesday, played a rescue part in an incendiary fire which raged in a Williamsburg apartment house today.

Messinger, who lives in the house, rushed out of his rooms when the fire was discovered, gave timely warning to all the tenants on the first floor, assisted a woman and her two children to safety and then half dragged and half carried an aged man and his daughter, both of them partially overcome by smoke, to the roof. The panic-stricken tenants all made their way across the roofs to safety.

CHOLERA ON STEAMER.

Steerage Passengers Are Allowed to Scatter Over Country.

Quebec, Canada, Nov. 25.—Thirty-seven steerage passengers from the steamer Royal George on which a case of cholera was discovered are today on their way to points in the western part of the United States. Along with the other steerage passengers, they were released from detention last night.

The thirty-seven were subjected to a rigorous examination at the hands of the American inspectors, but no reason for holding any of them could be discovered, and all were finally allowed to proceed on their way. Gottlieb Zribe, the patient, is reported to be doing well.

RAT GNAWS CHILD'S FACE.

Little Girl Carried to Hospital at New Orleans For Treatment.

New Orleans, Nov. 25.—The attack of a rat probably came near proving fatal for ten-year-old Lillian Williams here last night. The rat was gnawing at the child's face when she awoke.

Her terrified screams failed to frighten the rodent away and it was necessary for her to fight it off. Suffering from painful wounds about the face, she was taken to a hospital.

MURDERED WEALTHY MAN.

Indian Suspected of Killing California Physician Millionaire.

Kingman, Ariz., Nov. 25.—Investigation by Coroner Smith and Sheriff Giddeon into the recent murder of Dr. L. W. Gilbert, a California physician, who is supposed to be heir to a $1,500,000 estate in the isolated region of Gold Bug Mill, revealed yesterday that the physician was killed by a Piute Indian by the name of Queho.

The Indian, it appears, quarreled with the other members of his tribe and went on a lone warpath after whites. Dr. Gilbert was the first white man he met, according to the reports brought back by the officers and he was shot down without warning.

A reward has been offered for Queho's capture and trailers are now after him, Piutes joining in the hunt. Queho is the first one of his tribe to take the warpath since the memorable killing expedition of Avot, who murdered five whites before being shot down by members of his own tribe.

Dr. Gilbert was at one time a well known practicing physician of Southern California. It is not known why he was in the isolated region where he met his death. Telegrams and correspondence in his possesion appear to show that he was heir to the estate of Edward D. Tremble.

Dudolph Reiley, Thomas F. Branch, Doc Killingsworth, Ralph E. Yerkes, Angelo Brondo, Wesley A. Martin, Julian J. Klein, William Bresh. Nelson Jones and Edgar J. Summerhays.

JUVENILE COURT MEASURE.

Adopted in Arizona Constitutional Amendment for That State.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 25.—Among the important propositions adopted by the Arizona Constitutional Convention yesterday were the juvenile court measure and the creation of a bureau of legislative research, to be in charge of the legislative secretary, who also will be State librarian.

Strong opposition has developed to the school and State land committees proposition for the conservation of all public lands for a period of 25 years. The committee excepts only lands that have been under irrigation the last five years, and the chief argument made against holding of other lands a quarter of a century is the claim that it gives the Sante Fe Railroad a monopoly in disposing of script which it holds in lieu of lands granted by the government along the right of way.

NEGRO ACCUSED OF MURDER.

Sailor and Cadet Held at Savannah as State's Witnesses.

Savannah, Nov. 25.—B. O. Rogers, a former city employe and recently a convict guard, employed by the county, was held for murder by the recorder this morning. He killed Elijah Williams, a negro last night, at Drayton and Bay streets.

Rogers says that the negro was advancing on him when he shot him. The witnesses state there was a quarrel between Rogers and the negro immediately preceding the shooting.

BOSTON HOTEL FIRE.

The 35 remaining guests escaping uninjured.

The hotel was burned to the ground together with the garage in the rear and two adjoining cottages.

The total loss will probably be considerably in excess of $50,000.

The injured are Mrs. Joan C. Beggs and her son, John C. Beggs, Jr., aged 17 years, of Springfield. They were asleep on the second floor of the building when the fire broke out at 2 o'clock.

AVIATION AT SPARTANBURG.

Aviator That Didn't Aviate in City of Spartanburg.

Spartanburg, S. C., Nov. 25—Fifteen hundred people gathered at Fairfield park yesterday afternoon to witness what they supposed would be a night in a biplane but in reality what was some rapid traveling along the ground by Aviator H. C. Cooke, late of Belmont, Minneola and Charlotte.

The aviator said that the wind was not right but it was blowing very gently during the afternoon and the crowd grew most impatient after waiting about two hours. To their disgust, wind checks good for admission to the park this afternoon were given.

THANKSGIVING ACCIDENTS.

"Unloaded" Gun and Careless Pistol Handling at Spartanburg.

Spartanburg, S. C., Nov. 25.—Will Huggins, aged 15, was shot and instantly killed at his home near Pacolet yesterday by an "Unloaded" gun in the hands of his companion, Charlie Griffin, who is about the same age. The two boys were sitting on the steps when the gun was in some unaccountable manner discharged and the entire load took effect in the chest of the unfortunate boy. His heart was literally blown from his body. Both were well known at their home town and the tragedy is much regretted. The coroner held an inquest but attached no blame to Griffin.

While playing with a pistol in the office of the Southern Express Company at the Southern station in this city yesterday morning the weapon in the hands of C. V. Hardin was accidentally discharged and the bullet struck Cephus Borroughs, colored, in the leg. It ranged downward and was located near the ankle by physicians who made an examination. The ball had divided and both places were removed.

DOWN IN MEXICO.

Illinois Legislator Who Has Not Reported as Expected.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Somewhere down in Mexico, enveloped by the rebellion against President Diaz, is Noble B. Judah, Jr., who has just been elected a member of the Illinois legislature. Fears of his safety have been excited because of inability to communicate with him by telegraph since Sunday.

"The last word I had from my son," said Noble B. Judah, "was last Sunday, when he wired me at some length that he was about to go to Chilpanzo, in the State of Mexico. He said that a company of rurales was spreading in that direction. He promised to wire from Chilpanzo, but did not do so and I have received no answer to several inquiries. While I do not suppose there is any cause to worry, I cannot help being anxious."

MASQUERADING AS BOY.

Louisiana Lass at Last Fell Victim of the Police.

New Orleans, Nov. 25.—Shorn of her curls and donning male attire, Franke Williams, 15-year-old daughter of a local railroad employe, had her "boys" career or roughing it abruptly terminated. Taking offense at a correction administered by her father, it was said the girl ran away from home Tuesday. After unsuccessfully seeking employment as a bell boy in a hotel, the girl camped out for two days and nights on the river bank. Late yesterday workingmen in the neighborhood suspected her disguise and reported the matter to the police. She was brought before the Carrollton police court, still protesting that her name was Harry Jones, but subsequently she revealed her identity and was turned over to her parents.

SHOT BOY TO DEATH.

Another Case of Not Knowing the Gun Was Loaded.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 25.—The coroner is today investigating the death of Charles Mulcey, a 15-year-old boy who was shot and killed by a companion of the same age, Charles Jones, near their home in Forestport last night. The two had been hunting and were on their way home when the shooting occurred. According to the story told the coroner, Jones pinted his shotgun playfully at Mulcey, telling him to "halt on pain of death." The gun went off and the charge entered the lad's head, death resulting instantly. Jones declared that he did not know his gun was loaded.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF TWO.

Mother Drew Web of Evidence Against Son Still Tighter.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 25.—Rachael Sears, mother of John Sears, who is in jail here charged with the murder of Rev. Anzi Armstrong and his wife at Dutch Neck, tonight drew the web of evidence against her sons till tighter in a statement which she made to Prosecutor William Crossley. According to the prosecutor the colored woman said that she heard the shooting while she was up stairs and that she became frightened and hid under a bed. She came down stairs and saw the bodies of Dr. Armstrong and his wife lying on the floor and her son was standing in the middle of the kitchen with a gun in his hands. She further told the prosecutor that she deferred announcing the murder because she wished to shield her son. Because of his statement given to the prosecutor tonight, the woman is held as a material witness.

In his talk with the prosecutor this afternoon Sears is alleged to have said that he asked the aged minister for money and that a two dollar bill was given him. Dr. Armstrong, Sears is alleged to have said, directed him to purchase a dollar's worth of fruit and to keep the remaining change.

When the subject of the actual shooting was broached to Sear she is alleged to have said according to a county official, that he shot Dr. Armstrong first and then killed his wife. The shooting occurred between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock.

WINSTON-SALEM SOUTHBOUND

First Trip of Inspection Over New Line Yesterday—History of Building of the Railroad—Trunk Line.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 25.—For about 50 years men of this section have dreamed of a line of road running from Wadesboro to the Northwest and traversing the counties of Anson, Stanly, Davidson and Forsyth. Many times have companies been organized and surveys made and in each instance failure has been the result until the organization of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway Company and today that road is completed. The first train left Wadesboro at 8:30 this morning for Winston-Salem.

It was a special train and its passengers were officials of the Norfolk & Western, the Atlantic Coast Line and the Winston-Salem Southbound with invited guests. These guests included the county commissioners from the counties through which the road runs, some gentlemen who have for years been leading spirits in the building of the road to the Northwest, and representatives of the press.

In the year 1857 the Legislature of North Carolina passed an act incorporating a company by the name of The Cheraw and Coal Fields Railroad. This company had as its object the construction of a line of railroad from Cheraw, S. C., through Wadesboro up into Chatham county. In 1861 the Legislature passed an act reviving and continuing in force the charter of the company, and later, in December of the same year, further legislation was enacted for the assistance of the company.

The war between the States was on and little was accomplished and the State convention of 1862 passed an ordinance giving the railroad company five years after the close of the war to complete the road. In 1867 the General Assembly granted the right to the counties along the road to subscribe for stock when approved by a popular vote. And again in 1868 the Legislature passed an act granting an extension of time to the company and giving them five years longer to finish at a crossing at Wadesboro on the line of road that is now the Seaboard Air Line. At this time the name of the company was changed to the Cheraw and Salisbury Railroad company.

This road was built from Cheraw to Wadesboro and finally pased into the hands of the Atlantic Coast Line and is now operated by them and becomes a part of the new trunk line which will open up a through route from the grain fields of the west to the port of Charleston.

It is a coincidence that the man who set the last spike in the building of the Winston-Salem Southbound should be the same man who years ago went from Wadesboro to Charleston to raise funds to build the Cheraw and Wadesboro line. This man is Mr. George W. Huntley, at this time an active citizen of Wadesboro.

In the early times Wadesboro and the surrounding terrieory suffered because of exorbitant freight on cotton. The Carolina Central had been built from Wilmington to Wadesboro and the chief crop must be shipped over that road to reach the coast. The shippers of Wadesboro felt that the ycould not pay the rates charged by the road and Mr. George W. Huntley organized and operated a wagon freight line from Wadesboro to Cheraw, S. C., and for several years hauled the cotton purchased in Wadesboro and the surrounding territory to Cheraw where is was loaded on the cars of the Northeastern railroad running from Florence, S. C. to Charleston.

Mr. Huntley decided that a road could be built from Wadesboro to Cheraw. He went to Florence and there met Col. R. H. Ravenal, at that time president of the Northeastern railroad. He told him of the need of railroad facilities at Wadesboro in order to compete with the Carolina Central. Col. Ravenal invited Mr. Huntley to go with him to Charleston. They traveled in the president's car and discussed plans. The result of this consultation was that Col. Ravenal took stock in the new railroad to the amount of $50,000. With this start Mr. Huntley returned to Wadesboro and in a very short time raised $20,000 more. He went back to his friend, Col. Ravenal, and told him of his success and was awarded with an additional subscription of $50,000 more. Mr. Huntley in telling the story of that second conversation remembers his remark to Col. Ravenal.

"Well, Col. Ravenal the Judiciary is exausted."

Col. Ravenal smiled quietly and replied, "I will give an additional $50,000."

With this $120,000 Mr. Huntley came back to Anson county and raised $3,000 additional.

The rails were ordered and the road built from Wadesboro to Cheraw.

Such is the story of the beginning of the railroad running North and South through Wadesboro.

A few years passed and there came a revival of the talk of a railroad to the North. Strange to say the same dream came to men in two sections of the State about the same time. While the men of Wadesboro—G. W. Huntley, L. J. Huntley, T. L. Caudle, W. C. Hardison, T. J. Covington, H. Haney, W. F. Crump, S. H. Hearne, J. S. Efird, O. N. Richardson, J. P. Redding and F. N. Tate—were planning a railraod to the north another company of men in Winston Salem were planning a road to the south.

In the General Assembly of 1905 two charters were granted within a few weeks of each other. The first was to the Winston-Salem Southbound railroad company and was ratified January 31st. By this act F. H. Fries, W. A. James, A. E. Holten, C. A. Reynolds, J. C. Buxton, H. A. Pfohl, J. A. Norfleet, A. H. Eller, H. H. Fries, W. A. Lemly, J. A. Gray, A. E. Holten, C. A. Reynolds, J. C. Buxton, H. A. ston-Salem Southbound Railroad. The charter provided that the road should run through the counties of Forsyth, Davidson, Davie, Guilford, Randolph, Chatham, Montgomery, Moore, Rowan, Stanly, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Union, Richmond, and Anson, or through any parts of the said counties to the South Carolina line.

The other charter was granted March 2, 1905, and the company was to be called the Winston, High Point and Wadesboro Interburban Electric Railroad Company. The leading men of this company were the Wadesboro men mentioned above.

The first information that came to the Wadesboro men of the organization of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad Company was through the newspapers. They immediately took up the matter with Col. F. H. Fries, the president of that corporation, and advised that if it was the intention of the company to build to Wadesboro that they would go in and help make that raod a success rather than to continue working for the proposed Winston, Hight Point and Wadesboro Interburban Electric Railroad.

And so the work started in 1905. The next step was bringing to the attention of the counties through which the road would run the matter of building a railroad. A house to house canvass was made, mass meetings were held in school houses. This campaign resulted in the bond elections and every county along the line voted bonds for the construction of the railroad. These bonds, however, were contingent upon the completion of the road within three years from April 1905. Everything went smoothly for a season and then came the panic of 1907.

It looked then like failure, and a splendid opportunity for the "knocker." Men like F. H. Fries of Winston, together with the hustling fellows from Wadesboro did not know the meaning of the word fail and they kept at the work of the road. Early in the Summer of 1908, two great railroad companies—the Norfolk & Western and the Atlantic Coast Line—made an agreement to build and equip the 90 miles of railroad between Winston-Salem and Wadesboro. This agreement was submitted to the board of directors of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad Company and accepted by them.

Contracts were let and the work of construction began. The first dirt on the Wadesboro end was moved September 1st, 1909, and the last spike driven November 20th, 1910.

So the dream of the years has been realized and many men in Winston-Salem and in Wadesboro and in the towns along the line are happy. There is no happier man today than the man who 50 years ago organized a wagon road to haul cotton from Wadesboro to Cheraw and wh later talked and worked for the building of this new road.

He was the happiest man in the party who inspected the completed road which is the connecting line between the great Pennsylvania system and the middle west and the Atlantic Coast Line in the southeast.

It is the purpose of the men who have built this connecting link to operate it as a part of a trunk line bringing from the store houses of the west the grain and stock and from the mountains of the Virginias the coal, making a short haul to Charleston where steamers loaded with this freight will make their way to the Panama.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Several New Charters Including Bank of Rowland—Thanksgiving in the Churches—Raleigh Baseball Prospects—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 25.—Among the new corporations chartered today was the Merchant's and Farmers' Bank, of Rowland, Robeson county. It has a capital of $100,000 and $17,000 paid in by J. H. McArn, E. M. Hines and others. The Guilford Realty and Insurance Co., of Greensboro, is another new corporation. It has $100,000 capital authorized and $25,000 paid in by H. R. Bush, J. W. Fry, G. W. Paterson and others. Other charters are to the Southmount Realty Co., Lexington, capital $25,000 by G. M. Stephens, R. L. Spaugh and others; and W. R. Newbury, Inc., Magnolia, capital $25,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by W. R. Newbury and Mrs. W. R. Newbury, the latter holding nearly all the stock.

The Corporation Commission is still striving to get the people of Fayeteville and the authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad together on the question of the plans for the new passenger station that the Coast Line has finally agreed to erect instead of doing extensive repair on the old station as at first proposed. There was a hearing today in which exceptions to the plans on the part of the citizens of Fayetteville were presented and the position of the railroad company in opposing the demands of the citizens in their demands were heard. The differences are principally as to details. The station is to cost something like $30,000. Major E. J. Hale headed the delegation from Fayetteville and the interests of the railroad company were represented by Assistant Counsel George B. Elliott, of Wilmington.

The collections in the Raleigh churches Thanksgiving Day for the various denominational orphanages aggregated over $700. The largest contributions were by the two Episcopal churches, Christ Church contributing $200 and The Church of the Good Shepherd $125. These donations go to the Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte.

There is believed to be some prospect for Raleigh to get into the Carolina Baseball League for next season It is reported here that there is a possibility to secure the franchise of Anderson, S. C. Some action as to the situation is expected to be taken before a great while.

As the result of the conference of the Corporation Commission, citizens of Fayetteville and representatives of the Atlantic Coast Line, later today the railroad authorities agree to increase the dimensions of the station five feet each way and to provide a porte cochere, these being in addition to other minor changes. Major E. J. Hale, E. R. Rose and T. G. McAllister represented the citizens of Fayetteville.

THANKSGIVING IN NASH.

Everybody Had Turkey—Freak Child Born—Henry Blount Lectures.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Nashville, N. C., Nov. 24.—Today has been a most pleasant Thanksgiving. Many of the people went to church this morning, and a good sum was raised for the orphans. Last night the Methodist people gave an oyster supper and the receipts will be sent to the Methodist orphanage. Tonight the Baptists will give a mask party and the proceeds will go to the orphanage.

An unsually large number of turkeys graced the dinner tables of the Nashville people today. The turkey has been much in evidence. The prevailing price at Nashville was 15 cents per pound, and everybody able to eat meat at all would afford turkey.

The Spring Hope Leader carries a story this week of the birth of a remarkable child near Spring Hope. Monday night Mrs. J. J. Cockrell gave birth to a baby girl without arms. It is reported that the child is well developed save in this particular.

Henry Blount lectures tomorrow night at Bowell's school house in North Whitakers township and next Tuesday at Spring Hope.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

You Can Work Near a Window

in winter when you have a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a portable radiator which can be moved to any part of a room, or to any room in a house. When you have a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Saturday, November, 26, 1910.

It is better to die honored and respected than to shuffle off this mortal coil as a crook. It is "diflerent," even in the eyes of a sordid world.

We hardly know whether the 1912 election will be merely a ratification of the selection of Woodrow Wilson or Judson Harmon for President. Of course, we are ready for either alternative.

Ethel Clare Leneve says she is going to change her name and 'begin life anew." A change of heart, rather than of name, would oetter aid her in attempting to lead a new life.

Suffragettes declare they are determined that women shall vote. When they find out what sort of candidates they will have to vote for, the ladies may not be so all-fired anxious to break into the political ring.

A New York woman celebrated Thanksgiving Day in jail. It is true she was in jail but it might have been worse, for she might have been on the street without the price of a meal ticket or lodging. We all might be thankful because the worse hasn't hapened yet.

English suffragettes a few days ago kicked Premier Asquith on his shins. Most men would "give in" long before things got so hot that extreme measures had to be adopted to make them walk the chalk line. It's a wise man who can keep out of the way of the shin kickers.

The Richmond Virginian says: "The man who made John Brown's coffin has just died at the age of 82." If all of Col. Roosevelt's time is not taken up chasing crooks, he might lecture for the purpose of raising a fund to build a monument to John Brown's coffin maker.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "The Charleston News and Courier is discussing the proper time for a man to beat his better half. We have a haunting suspicion that there are instances in both Carolinas where such an enterprise would be attended with some little danger." How about the Virginian who beats his wife out of a quarter?

Atlanta and Memphis have fallen out over the census report concerning their population statistics. The Memphis Commercial Appeal accuses the Atlanta Journal of "lying" about Memphis and the Journal can be depended upon to hand back some hot stuff. It is strange how newspapers in rural communities take exception to every little thing that is said.

It is reported that some of the great American cold storage plants have had a portion of their stock of eggs stored for three years and that the cold storage contain seven eggs for every man, woman and child in the United States. We hope they will not keep our 7 stored until the price goes so high they will have to be put off on some malefactors of great wealth.

As the Democatic party has opposed "Imperialism," Count Okuma, of Japan, throws out the hint that Japan would like to buy the Philippine Islands. See there now! Just as soon as there is a prospect for the Democracy to get in power it creates a demand for what we may have to sell. Japan seems to be willing to take off our hands the junk which fell to our lot during the war with Spain.

PORT BUILDING IN THE SOUTH.

The most significant event of the times in oNrth Carolina was the formal inauguration of train service over the new Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad yesterday, when the first through train ran through from Wadesboro to Winston-Salem, carrying the officials of the road and prominent officials of the Atlantic Coast Line and of the Norfolk & Wastern Railroad which jointly etaoin shrdlum Railroad, which two systems jointly built the new line. It was given out when it was decided to build a new road that it would be constructed and operated jointly by the two railroad systems named, while as a corporation it would be distinct from either of the systems. The road, however, will be under the direct operation of the Atlantic Coast Line.

The Southbound Railroad from Winston-Salem, N. C., to Wadesboro, is 90 miles in length, connecting at the former city with the Norfolk & Western and at the latter with the Atlantic Coast Line into Charleston. The new line simply forms a length between the Norfolk & Western and the Atlantic Coast Line and it was built to for ma new trunk line from the West to the Atlantic seaboard. The new road has been constructed on the most modern scale and is one of the finest pieces of modern railroad trackage i nthis or any other country. No expense in construction or equipment has been spared, the aim being to build a railroad without a superior in its physical aspects. The new line has been constructed at a cost of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

The purpose of its construction was to make a link in a new trunkline to the port of Charleston in anticipation of the handling of a large traffic, especially upon completion of the Panama Canal no wscheduled three years hence and not later than five years. Charleston is one of the nearest ports to the Panama Canal and the three Atlantic ports having that distinction, Wilmington, Charleston and Savannah, are destined to witness tremendous development on account of the gigantic commerce which the Panama Canal will draw from them for the South American and Oriental trade. The development of an enormous commerce from these three Southern ports is inevitable on account of the construction of the ship canal which cleaves the two Americas and connects the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific, immensely shortening the waer route to the largest portion of the world's trade. For that trade, Europe and America will compete, with a tremendous advantage in favor of the Unied States which is building the canal as a stroke of great National enterprise and development.

The new trunk line into Charleston is but one of more that, as sure as fate, will be consruced into Wilmington, Charleston and Savannah, as all three ports will be required for the immense traffic which all the world anticipates as the result of the construction of the great Isthmian waterway soon to be completed by this government. The relative importance of our hree particularly fortunate South Atlantic ports will largely depend upon their comparative advantageous positions and very largely upon the enterprise of the business men of the respective ports. Good fortune has first fallen to the lot of Charleston in securing a new trunk line directly into the great coal fields and giving an outlet for Western traffic. We are satisfied, however, that great enterprises in which Wilmington and Savannah are to figure will loom up in the future—probably near future—but, logically, as the canal traffic will create the demand for greater port service on the South Atlantic. With reference to Wilmington's opportunities as one of the great South Atlantic port developments, by reason of the ship canal which is to open up the South Atlantic and Pacific trade on a huge scale, much depends upon the intelligence, the enterprise and the activity of the business men of this port. It behooves Wilmington's leading men to keep their eyes open to every opportunity and to take the intative in any movement promising better railroad and harbor facilities at this port. The advantages of Wilmington must be made known in such a pronounced way as to attract capital for the construction or attraction of trunk line service over lines already in existence or that may be constructed. Certainly the time has arrived for us to wake up, for there is big business and big things to tax the ingenuity and capacity of the men of Wilmington. The great developments of the age will require all our initiative and creative genius.

The work which must be done for Wilmington has immense scope to it. It will tax our united capacities. It will require the intelligent, active and earnest co-operation of every citizen who can do his part, much or little, towards handling the fulcrum which is to place Wilmington into position as a commercial and manufacturing centre. Shall we measure up to the great oportunities which lie ahead of our port and avail ourselves of the pronounced advantages, potentialities and possibilities of a port so logically situated for one of the ocean gateways of the South Atlantic? Recent events magnify the importance to this port of the railroad project of Col. S. A. Jones, of Waynesville, N. C., who for several years has interested himself in a proposed great trunk line from the West to the Cape Fear ocean outlet. Col. Jones' project but serves to emphasize the feasibility and necessity of that connection for the port of Wilmington. Wilmington must have a great trunk line railway into the West and Col. Jones' project furnishes us the first opportunity in that direction. His plans are worthy of the most serious consideration and he should not lack for co-operation of the most earnest nature, if there is anything in his apparently great scheme.

THE NEW TRUNK LINE.

The new trunk line from the port of Charleston over the Atlantic Coast Line, the Southbound and the Norfolk & Western, embraces several hundred miles of railway trackage, and, as a matter of course, the railroad connections of the trunk line penetrate unlimited territories North and West. It is one of the greatest railroad enterprises put on foot in the South, and we confidently believe it is the beginning of trunk line building into the South Atlantic and Gulf ports. The Southeastern ports on the Atlantic ocean and those on the Gulf of Mexico possess the greatest geographical advantages over all American ports so far as Isthmian waterway traffic is concerned. If the great canal project is to develop the enormous commerce expected of it, these South Atlantic and Gulf ports of the South are bound to be developed on a scale of which we little dream. That is inevitable. Fate has made it so and the construction of the canal is but one of the agencies of fate.

This port extends from Southport to Wilmington and its development on a large scale depends upon deeper water. The thirty-foot channel to Wilmington is one of the National government's fixed waterway projects and already work has been commenced upon it. It has been recognized as a meritorious project under the continuous appropriation policy and from it Wilmington expects a great development. That development, however, will best be accellerated and broadened in its scope only by railway connections and harbor facilities for the handling of commerce. The thirty-foot channel will not produce commerce. It will only furnish the means for doing commerce, so if Wilmington's commerce is to equal the facilities created by deeper water it will be up to the port's business men to create ocean traffic or attract it to this port for distribution either by export or import.

Wilmington will get her 30-foot channel at the hands of Congress and we must do the rest. It will afford us the opportunity for developing commerce, and so far as our deeper water prospects and the natural advantages of the port of Wilmington go, they are equal to any of our South Atlantic ports. In this connection it need only be stated in passing that, "as the ship sails," however, Wilmington, Charleston and Savannah are practically the same distance from the Panama Canal, but the port whic his to experience the first impulse of the South American and Oriental trade is the one with the best railroad connections and port facilities. Therefore, the future development of the port of Wilmington depends, not alone upon deeper water, but upon railroad and harbor facilities. The government is looking after the deeper water end of the proposition, but it is up to Wilmingtonians to look out for railroad and harbor facilities and get the commerce.

If prices have fallen they haven't hit hard enough to jar you.

FAVORS COMMISSION FORM.

Mr. E. H. Cook Thinks Would Rid Politics of Disagreeable Features.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 25, 1910.

Editor Star:—I've just read in this morning's edition a quotation from a Chattanooga paper, stating that they "must" have the Commission form of city government. It seems to me that this town needs it as badly as those who already have it, did, before they got it. I hope somebody else will "talk out in meetin'". We need each other's ideas anyway. I've noticed the bitterness and strife that takes place at each city election and think this, in a measure, would cease under the "new order" adopted by many of our cities. E. H. COOK.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"Winsome Wilmington" will be all the more so when those two skyscrapers which are being planned shall have been completed.—Charlotte Observer.

While we are not making a kick for a commission form of city government, most anything would be an improvement over the ward politics plan.—Durham Herald.

How do the American suffragettes account for the fact that there has been no exodus of women from the States where women are "enslaved" to the State where they have been emancipated? Is it not strange, from a woman suffrage point of view, that Colorado and Wyoming have not in proportion to their whole population twice as many women as men when compared with South Carolina and North Dakota?—Columbia State.

The following nine States, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, as officially reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, show an increase of 158,294,000 bushels of corn, which is 45 per cent. o fthe total increase for the year, for the entire United States. The Eastern Carolina News will continue to publish these reports for the benefit of the farmers. Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration work has been conducted in each of these States. The farmers of Duplin county and all Eastern Carolina are learning how to grow corn. They are studying the soil and are working with a determination. Better cultivation and smaller acreage to each farmer is solving the problem rapidly.—Eastern Carolina News.

Other cities in this State are pointing to Greensboro's success in handling its water plant and advising imitation. The right way to handle anything is to handle it right; this can be done only by having the right kind of men in charge and giving them full swing, free from any tommyrot, and other things that attach to city government. The water and light commission in Greensboro is really a commission plan of government insofar as it applies to water and light, but the work done and the money made could not have been done except by having the right kind of management. The superintendent is a man who "knows how" and no one bothers him. He devotes all his time to it, which means ten to twelve hours a day and all night when occasion requires. He runs the water plant just like a superintendent runs railway trains, except he works his hands as well as his head.—Greensboro Record.

The third annual convention of the North Carolina Drainage Association, which convened in Wilmington Tuesday, is the concrete expression of one of the most far-reaching and important projects now occupying the attention of this State. This association is composed of men who combine practical ability with that kind of constructive imagination which is needed in all great undertakings. An excellent type of this combination is to be found in the career of Mr. J. A. Wilkinson, of Belhaven, a former president of the association and an active figure during its recent deliberations. Mr. Wilkinson saw the possibilities of drainage early in life. Having studied the matter exhaustively he did not hesitate to back his judgment with his entire personal fortune. His decision of character has found its merited reward in enlarged means and he is now devoting a large part of his time and energy to the work of increasing the drained area within the State. The president who called this year's convention to order, Mr. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, is a man after the same sort. Largely through his aggressiveness his vicinity leads North Carolina in this particular line of progress and as State Senator he was instrumental in securing valuable legislative action. Representative John H. Small, of the first district, is another of the leaders in the association who is indefatigable in his efforts to advance the cause, and United States Senator F. M. Simmons manifested his interest by delivering a most inforrning address, dealing particularly with the relations existing between the Federal government and the work which is being done in this State. Nor would even the briefest list of leaders be complete without mention of State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt, whose report as secretary of the association covers fifty pages and constitutes a compact library of reference on the North Carolina work. Under the guidance of these men and others like them the North Carolina Drainage Association is becoming a more powerful factor in the equation of progress every year. Its efforts are not confined to swamp drainage, but include as well the reclamation of creek bottoms. This scope gives it a tremendous task but one which cannot but inspire the workers.—Charlotte Observer.

COLUMBUS NEWS ITEMS.

Thanksgiving Observance—Robeson Farmers Prospecting—Court.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 25.—Thanksgiving Day passed off very quietly in Whiteville. Churches had services in the morning and Thanksgiving dinners followed at the different homes. At night the Woodmen of the World gave an oyster supper in Vineland, to which a number of citizens were invited, and it was a most enjoyable occasion.

There was a great hunt on the preserves of the Waccamaw Game Club, and the deer killed were served at a fine dinner, to which all the old Confederate soldiers in that neighborhood were invited. Besides venison cooked in every style all manner of good things were served. The hunters who went into the woods returned loaded with birds and squirrels.

Mr. Jordan, of Robeson county, has bought the Dr. W. Ross Davis and the Richardson farms near Whiteville, and will open up and improve these lands. They are on the Elizabethtown road, about two miles from the court house.

There were yesterday in Whiteville three other farmers from Robeson county looking for farming lands, viz: Messrs. Purvis, E. R. Mitchell and W. A. Griffin. They are all highly successful planters and are well pleased with what they have seen of Columbus county.

The sheriff and his deputies have been busy all this week serving papers and arranging for the opening of court next Monday, over which Judge Allen will preside. It will be a mixed court and both civil and criminal cases will be tried.

Mr. A. M. Benton, one of the leading citizens and largest land owners of Evergreen, says they are watching with interest work on the Chadbourn drainage district, and if it proves the success anticipated and confidently predicted, that the land owners around Evergreen will go to work and organize a large drainage district to embrace that entire section. There is some of the finest land in our section around Evergreen, but like most of this county it needs drainage. A successful farmer says there is more money in cutting ditches than in buying fertilizers. From every section you hear talk of drainage districts, and before the Summer is ended next year dirt will be moving in many of the swamps and marshes of our county.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

BODY WAS FOUND IN RIVER.

Remains of Henry Kelly, Colored—Has Been Missing Two Weeks.

After having been missing for two weeks last night, the body of Henry Kelly, a colored delivery boy, for John N. Richardson a dealer at the Fourth Street Market, was found in the river at the old Waccamaw Land & Lumber Company's wharf near the upper compress yesterday morning at 6 o'clock.

The body was discovered by a number of stevedores who were loading a schooner nearby and it was not until yesterday afternoon that the remains were identified. The man was sent with a basket of meat to the schooner John H. May, loading at the Waccamaw wharf, about 7 o'clock on the night of the 11th and it is presumed that he fell overboard in his effort to get to the vessel. The wharf, it is stated, has a number of bad places in it that make it extremely dangerous to walk across after dark. The meat never reached the schooner and the whereabouts of the colored by was never known. The body was viewed by the coroner and a burial permit issued without an inquest.

Jury Found No Element of Fraud.

The hearing in the attachment proceedings instituted some time ago by Mr. Joseph H. Watters, the wholesale grocer, against Mr. J. C. Vereen, formerly a city health officer, who conducts a store at Eighth and Dawson streets, took place before Justice Harriss and a jury in the Court House yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff was suing for $190.32 alleged to be due on contract and also alleged that the defendant concealed or disposed of his goods for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. The jury found that the defendant was due the plaintiff the amount sued for, but did not find that the element of fraud entered into the case. Kellum & Loughlin represented the defendant and J. O. Carr and A. S. Williams, Esqs., appeared for the plaintiff.

The body was removed to the residence of Mrs. Crouch, No. 5 Wooster street, whence the funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

TOM LEACH FOUND GUILTY

Negro Sentenced to Roads for Setting Fire to Cotton at Champion Compress—Takes Appeal—Other Road Sentences.

The Recorder had several cases for his consideration yesterday morning, there being quite an accumulation over Thanksgiving Day. The most important case was the one in which Alex. Brown and Tom Leach, colored, were charged with setting fire to some cotton at the Champion compress Wednesday afternon, the blaze, fortunately, being discovered in time to prevent any serious damage being done.

The main witness in the case was Sam Stringfield, a negro youth, who was taken into custody at the same time the other two were arrested. The evidence of Stringfield exonerated Brown and fastened the offense on Leach. Stringfield testified that Leach struck a match and threw it in a quantity of loose cotton with a resultant big blaze in an instant. The State did not show any reason why Leach should attempt to burn up the plant and no motive has yet been assigned. The Recorder found Leach guilty and sentenced him to six months on the county roads. Brown was found not guilty and discharged. Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., who represented the defendants, gave notice of appeal to Superior Court. Leach's bond was fixed at $200, in default of which he went to jail. Geo. L. Peschau and Marsden Bellamy, Esq., appeared for the prosecution.

Joe Yates, white, a familiar figure in police courts, was arraigned on the charge of assault on his wife, and was given a straight sentence of 30 days on the county roads. Yates has been in court before on a similar charge, but heretofore has managed to escape with a fine.

Pearl Brown, a white woman, was given hearing on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. It was developed that she owed fine and costs in an old case. The Recorder gave her 30 days on the county farm in each case provided the amount of the fines and costs is not arranged. She had not paid the amount yesterday and will probably go to the farm.

Alfred Torrence, Geo. Teachy and John Willie, all colored, were called to answer the charge of firing a pistol in the city limits. A nol pros was taken as to Teachey, who was made a State's witness. The evidence was to the effect that Willie vigorously resisted arrest and on his person was found a pistol. The Recorder gave him a total of six months, three months for carrying concealed weapons and threee months for resisting arrest. Torrence was found not guilty.

Smiley Graman, colored, was fined $20 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon and in a case against him for drunkenness and disorderly conduct judgment suspended. Several defendants were required to pay, the usual amount for drunkenness.

SUFFERED BROKEN ARM.

Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Northrop Had Serious Fall.

Many friends of the family will regret to learn that Thomas Wright Northrop, the bright seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Northrop, broke his right arm just above the wrist while playing in the back yard at his home, Eighth and Market streets, Thursday about noon. The little fellow fell backwards over some window blinds with which he was playing and the force of the fall, although only about 18 inches distant, snapped the bone in the right arm. Members of the family were not at home at the time, but they were hurriedly summoned and a physician called in. The limb was set and the little fellow was resting very comfortably yesterday. Thomas was looking at the broken member very seriously when his father arrived. "My poor arm, gone forever," was the lad's rather pathetic comment. He did not think his arm would be of any more service to him than that of a doll's when it is broken, but when he found out that in a short time his arm would be as good as ever it seemed that a great burden had been lifted from him and despite the intense suffering his countenance was radiant.

SUIT AGAINST MR. M. J. HEYER

Mr. R. N. Carney, Injured by Fall Through Elevator Shaft at Southern Building, Will Ask Big Damages.

What promises to be one of the most interesting and vigorously contested cases heard in this county in some years was instituted in Superior Court, yesterday, when Mr. R. N. Carney, formerly janitor at the Southern Building, corner Front and Chestnut streets, brought civil action against Mr. M. J. Heyer, owner of the building, for damages for injuries received by the plaintiff in a fall through the elevator shaft some two or three months ago.

The complaint has not yet been filed, but it is understod that the plaintiff will seek to secure $15,000 damages. The action was started by Kellum & Louglin, counsel for the plaintiff.It will be recalled that Mr. Carney in going to his work one morning some two or three months ago opened the door to the elevator on the first floor and instead of stepping off onto the elevator fell through the shaft to the basement below, the elevator, it was said at the time, having been left at some point above the first floor. It was stated at that time that Mr. Carney thought the elevator in its accustomed position on the first floor and hurriedly threw open the door and stepped off the corridor floor, and landed in the basement with terrific force. He was given attention at the hospital for several weeks, after which he was moved to his home. It is stated that he is unable to get about save with the aid of crutches and with this assistance can make but little progress The complaint, it is understood will allege that he is seriously and permanently injured through the negligence of the defendant in not keeping the elevator in proper condition. It is presumed from this that the plaintiff will allege that the elevator was not in proper working order.

KILLED BIG BEAR.

Party in Mr. Garrell's Yacht Had Exciting Time Last Week.

Beaufort Lookout

Mr. J. F. Garrell and his guests, Messrs. A. C. Houser, of Buffalo. N. Y.; S. W. Greenlaw, of Millbridge, Me.; Lawrence and Frank Pinner and Daniel G. Fowle, of Beaufort, have just returned from the wilds of South River and report having had much sport gunning. Frida and Saturday were spent in and around Core creek swamp, where under the guidance of the veteran hunter, Len Merrick, they bagged a number of squirrels, several opossums and an extra large "coon." Sunday was spent at Oriental, and before day, Monday morning, the party landed at Mr. Parker's place at the head of South river for a bear hunt.

Just at sunrise Len unleashed his pack of bear hounds and in a few moments the crisp morning air was filled with the snouts of the drivers and the music of the hounds When Merrick recognized the baying of his crack bear dog. "Pup," he informed the hunters that it was certainly a bear, because "Pup" did not speak exactly that way to anything else but Mr. Bruin. After a nexciting dash through the swamp, piloted by Mr. Elijah Whitley, the party succeeded in blocking the only line of retreat for old bruin. And right here let it be said that this particular bear was a veteran fighter. Time and again he turned to face his tormentors, but no bear could hope to cope with Merrick's dogs, so finally he was forced, snapping and snarling, from his lair valiantly contesting every inch of ground, straight towards Mr. Houser. When the big fellow finally broke cover with bristles standing and the dogs close at his heels those nearest to Mr. Houser say that his cheek paled slightly as he realized that he was face to face with a thoroughly aroused and dangerous animal. But he proved equal to the occasion and at the flash of his gun Old Bruin's huge bulk staggered to the ground, rose again to turn upon the dogs who had now surrounded him, swayed unsteadily on his feet for an instant and then, with a last defiant rush at the nearest dog, sunk slowly to the ground.

Merrick and Whitley soon beat the dogs off, and then the whole party stood upon what must have been the largest bear killed for some time in Carteret county. After removing the bear's skin, the party weighed anchor for Beaufort via Oriental and the inland waterway. The bear's skin will be tanned and a rug made of it for Mrs. Houser.

The party stopped at Core Creek bridge, where they succeeded in bagging a coon and several large opossums.

Mr. Merrick and his dogs are excellent hunters, and anyone so fortunate as to secure their services is assured of great sport.

THE CROW OPTICAL COMPANY

Will Establish Manufacturing Plant in Wilmington—General Manager J. J. Crow Here Making Arrangements.

Dr. J. J. Crow, vice president and general manager of the Crow Optical Company, recently granted a charter by the Secretary of State, arrived in the city yesterday morning from his home in Lumberton, and during the day held conferences with a number of prominent business men with a view of securing a desirable site for the location of the company's manufacturing plant.

When seen by a Star representative Dr. Crow stated that several sites were being considered, but nothing definite would be determined until there is a meeting of the directors for the purpose, some time within the next few weeks. Dr. Crow expects to leave for New York City within the next week and upon his return will open offices in this city, probably in the Southern Building, from which the operations of the company will be directed until the manufacturing plant has been established and the machinery started. He said that an order for a portion of the machinery had already been placed and that by the time the machinery is ready for delivery the site will have been selected and a building erected thereon. An unusually long time is required to get together machinery for a plant of the kind, said Dr. Crow, and for this reason he could not say with any degree of certainty just when the manufacture of optical supplies, etc., will begin. As soon as offices are opened traveling men will be put on the road, traveling every State in the South, to secure contracts for delivery as soon as the plant begins operations.

The company has a capital stock of $25,000 and Dr. Crow said that most of this has already been subscribed and numbered among the stockholders are some of the State's most prominent business men. Dr. Wm. F. Stevens, of Fairmont, is president of the company and Mr. J. G. Baldwin, of Maxton, is secretary. There are several Wilmington stockholders.

Dr. Crow was formerly a practicing optician but for the past 15 years has been engaged exclusively in the manufacturing business, being connected with a number of enterprises. The plant proposed for this city will be the only one of the kind in the State and Dr. Crow hopes to secure a big portion of the business in the Southern States. Including the traveling representatives the company will employ about 50 people.

Dr. Crow has great faith in the future of Wilmington and believes this is the best town in North Carolina for the establishment of an enterprise. Several other towns made bids for the plant of the optical company, but the many advantages of Wilmington, mainly in freight rates, caused the directors to decide to locate here. The advantages of this city were championed by Dr. Crow, who is well known in Wilmington, and who spends his Summers at Wrightsville Beach.

Within the next few months Dr. Crow will move his family to Wilmington and will reside here permanently.

NEELY COMPRESS STOCK.

One of Machines Demonstrated Near Atlanta, Ga.—The Outlook.

Holders of large blocks of the stock in Wilmington will be interested in an illustrated write-up of the Neely Compress in the Atlanta, Ga., Constitution of November 19th. The Neely machine is designed to produce high density bales at the ginnery and one of the new models was recently tried out near Atlanta by a representative of the company and the Atlanta paper says that the baling process was highly satisfactory and that the machine has a wonderful future before it. The machine will be sold at $2,000 and is designed to be run with the power of the ordinary ginnery, so that great things are expected from it. The Neely company will keep the compress on exhibition at Union City during the entire Winter, and contemplates baling 500 or 1,000 bales from cotton which they will purchase for their own use.

THANKSGIVING FOR SEAMEN.

Annual Dinner at the Home on Thursday Evening—Many Guests.

One of the most interesting and most pleasing incidents of the Thanksgiving season in Wilmington was the annual dinner to the large number of seamen in port by the Seamen's Friend Society at the Bethel, Front and Dock streets. Secretary Thos. F. Wood had issued a general invitation to the "men who go down to the sea in ships" and 128 of the strangers and special guests responded and sat down to the sumptuous board so bountifully provided at the home. Capt. James I. Metts, president of the Society, was present as host and Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., the chaplain, was present, invoking a divine blessing upon the feast and making a brief bu appropriate address to those before him. The dinner consisted of all the delicacies and substantials peculiar to this season and it was in the greatest abundance. The annual dinner will rank for years as one of the most delightful and gracious events of Thanksgiving 1910.

SMALLPOX COMPLETE.

(Published by Request.)

I'm exiled from all mankind,
The halt, the lame and the blind,
And even the birds are shy of me—
My brother is affected with smallpox, you see.
The doctor came in and raised a big fuss,
And said according to law he must vaccinate us.
I told him I never would on earth agree,
For no kind of doctor to vaccinate me.
He said if you kick to the pest house we'll take you;
No matter how wild you are, there we'll break you.
I thought awhile over what would be best
And decided to stand the terrible test.
Now we are immune from smallpox and such things:
And mother sits off in the parlor and sings
That old-fashioned song with hymn book in hands,
"I have crossed the river Jordan and am safe in the Beulah land."
If you are looking for smallpox you will find it complete
At Six Hundred and Seven South Second Street.

Mill Property Seized.

Under authority of claim and delivery proceedings instituted in Pender county by W. O. Savage, of that county, against John M. Goodwin, M. D. valued at $200, wa sin Mr. Knox's certain machinery in possession of the defendants was seized by Sheriff S. P. Cowan Thursday afternoon. The plaintiff alleges that he had a chattel mortgage on the property while it was in the possession of the first two named defendants and that the machinery was disposed of regardless of his claim against it. The machinery, valued at $200, was in Mr. Knox's mill, therefore it was necessary to make him a party to the action.

Today bargain day in shoes at Rehder's Big Store, Fourth Street

Theatrical

Without fear of contradiction, it can be safely said that the forthcoming engagement at the Academy next Thursday night, December 1st, of Lew Field's mammoth musical play, "The Midnight Sons", will mark the appearance here of the largest production mechanically and scenically, of any ever seen on the local stage. "The Midnight Sons, is a spectacular play which ran for 36 weeks at the Broadway Theatre, terminating its run last season after having earned for the producers and the management of the Broadway Theatre the largest revenue of any company that has ever been seen at this commodious playhouse, and it will be recalled by those familiar with American theatricals that "Ben Hur", Anna Held and "Old Kentucky" were shown at this theatre.

"Thte Midnight Sons" was built along big lines. There are eight scenes, any two of which would prove sufficient material for the average musical comedy, while one of these scenes in particular is said to be the largest, most extensive and heaviest of any ever built. It shows the interior of a modern playhouse, with a stage, tiers of boxes, orchestra seats, balcony and gallery, the seating capacity alone being 500 people, and in order to properly present this scene in all of its illusion and enhancement, there are employed in additions to the cast of principals of 100 and the chorus of 60, 200 supernumerary actors, these people being engaged in each city in advance of the appearance of the play. Another scene shows the "Honeymoon Express" in motion, the effect being so arranged that the audience sees a railway train flying through space. There are about 25 speaking parts in the play, in addition to numerous other small characters, the large chorus, the pony ballet, and a special company of vaudeville artists who make their appearance in the "theatre." "The Midnight Sons" in this respect is unique, in that it carries over a dozen singers and dancers who are seen only once throughout the evening's entertainment. The play has justly been described as a modern Arabian Nights' entertainment on account of its diversity of scene, color and story.

There are 30 musical numbers, the score being the work of Raymond Hubbell, the well known composer, while Glen MacDonongh, who wrote "The Rose of Algeria." "The Jolly Bachelors," and latterly, "The Summer Widowers," wrote the book.

"The Midnight Sons," it is promised will be given here in its entirety, which means that the six baggage cars of scenery and properties will be used. The engagement is regarded by the local management as the most extraordinary of the season's bookings.

Seats will go on sale at Plummer's Wednesday morning.

Amateurs at Crystal.

The chief attraction at the Crystal Palace last night was the appearance of amateurs, six in number, who added considerably to the splendid regular programme. Miss Agnes Cordray won the first prize and Mr. Ed Brewer the second prize. These two were especially liberally applauded. The usual number of Saturday performances will be given today. Amateurs will be seen again next Friday night.

Joyland.

There will be a special programme for the Saturday patrons of this ever popular little picture house. "The Italian Sherlock Holmes," which is full of interest from start to finish and a drama that is out of the ordinary, and a comedy that has never been equalled in moving pictures before will make you scream. "A Round Trip $5.98," don't miss it. Programme changes daily.

At the Bijou Today.

"White Man's Money the Indian's Curse," "Woman's Vanity," and "The Golf Fiend," are the titles of the pictures that will be shown at the ever popular Bijou theatre today. The first named is a Canadian Indian story true to nature, the second is a ripping little comedy on the "hobble hoopskirt," a wonderful creation, and in the last named the reason Jones does not play golf now is plainly given.

MARK TWAIN ONCE SAID

"It is Spring Fever that causes the general unrest, lack of ambition and run-down condition which pervades the human system in the Spring of the year."

The sudden change from frigid to torrid weather occurs within a few weeks, especially in our northern States.

No wonder pulmonary troubles—pneumonia, Spring fever, and all such ailments are almost universal.

If people in this vicinity only knew the value of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) at this season of the year, we would not be able to get enough to supply the demand.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women, those suffering from bronchitis, chronic coughs and colds, all derive great benefit from its use.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

ARRANGING FOR XMAS BASKETS.

Local Post. Salvation Army, Issues Appeal to Citizens.

In accordance with its usual custom the local post of the Salvation Army hopes to provide a Christmas basket for every deserving poor family in Wilmington and Adjutant and Mrs. Williams, who are in charge, have already begun the work of securing contributions. Last year the citizens of the city responded most liberally to the appeal of the Army and the fraternal organizations contributed more than $100 with the result that hundreds were made happy during the gladsome season. There is no doubt but that the appeal will meet with the same ready and liberal response this year. Within the next few days Adjutant and Mrs. Williams will mail letters to 200 prominent business men and charitably inclined persons, reading substantially as follows:

"Dead Friend:—As has been our custom in the past, we again expect to be able , with your co-operation, to bring cheer and gladness into the homes of the poor and needy of our city on Christmas Day. And to this end we wish to make up a large number of Christmas baskets and place one in each of these homes on Saturday, December 24th.

"This will require some effort on our part, and will only be made possible by a generous contribution from you at your earnest convenience.

"At the end of the effort we will publish a statement of income and expenditure. Any surplus to be used in our regular work in the city."

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys,

Wilmington people endorse this:

Miss Mattie Hodges, 609 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills I have felt better in every way and am pleased to add my testimonial to the many already given in favor of this remedy. I had kidney trouble for years. My back ached most of the time and when I stooped or lifetd, sharp pains caught me across my loins. I had but little strength or energy and was also bothered by a kidney weakness. I used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and they disposed of the backache, strengthened my kidneys and gave me ambition and energy."

COTTON TOUCHES HIGH MARK

New Records Made on Market Yesterday—Steady at New Advance of 16 to 28 Points—Estimate From Liverpool.

New York, Nov. 25.—New high records were made in the cotton market today with May cotton selling at 15.35 for the first time this season or 27 points above the closing figures of Wednesday on continued covering and bull support inspired by reports of a more active trade demand, and expectations of a bullish government report early next month. The close was steady at a net advance of 19 to 28 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 6 to 15 points in response to higher Liverpool cables and bullish private crop estimates. Realizing was very heavy around 15.25 for May and prices eased off 4 or 5 points from the best during the middle of the day but as selling for long account became less active the market firmed up again on continued support from newly converted bulls, and further covering of shorts. During the afternoon prices showed a net advance of from 24 to 27 points on the active months and the close was only a little off from the top. According to private cables the average official estimates of members of the Liverpool Cotton Exchange is 11,938,000 bales and individual authorities in this country issued estimates ranging from 11,100,000 up to 11,800,000 bales. Estimates have now been published by six cotton exchanges including Liverpool, ranging from 11,790,000 up to 12,119,000 bales and averaging 11,965,000 bales which would suggest that the bulk of the trade is looking for a government estimate on December 9th of about 11,600,000 bales exclusive of linters.

The census figures on supply and distribution attracted comparatively little attention owing to the general disposition to prepare for the forthcoming official estimate of the crop, but the figures indicating that consumption among domestic mills for the first two months of the season had been at the rate of 4,500,000 bales per year in spite of curtailment, and that on November 1st, the domestic mills held less than two months' supply probably helped the market late in the day in connection with the large spinners' takings for the week and the large business reports in some of the southern spot markets.

Receipts at the ports today, 82,586 bales against 77,946 last week and 42,352 last year. For the week 375,000 bales against 414,822 last week, and 209,576 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 15,802 bales against 1,911 last year, and at Houston 17,199 bales against 4,436 last year.

Spot Cotton closed quiet 15 points higher; middling uplands 15.10; middling gulf 15.35. Sales 10,000 bales.

Futures opened firm and closed steady.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Prices Have Moved Up Sharply on the Market—Large Southern Interests Figure—Liverpool Strong and Active.

New York, Nov. 25.—Stimulated by reduced crop estimates predicted on the last ginning report have moved up sharply. Large spot interests formerly bearish are now arrayed on the bull side. Some Wall street shorts have covered and gone "long."

Large Southern interests are more emphatic than ever in expressing the belief that prices are destined to reach a very much higher level. The so-called Waldorf-Astoria element which often carries a line of 100,000 bales or more has latterly taken the bull side. Two well known Southern members of the trade, who were here for a long period have returned to New Orleans, but they are as bullish as ever.

Speculation has not been broad or active, but as the prestige of the bulls increases they look for a bigger following and wider scope of trading. The ginning figures last Monday were a couple of hundred thousand bales less than some had looked for and crop estimates of 11,200,000 to 11,300,000 bales are growing more frequent. Some of the more conservative bulls say that they are content to put the crop at 11,500,000,000 to 12,000,000 bales and regard such a supply as entirely inadequate to fill the gaps in world's stocks. They insist that prices are bound to amount to a point which will make present quotations look cheap. Some of them admit that the American cotton goods trade is not altogether satisfactory, but they insist that this feature will be more than offset by the smallnes of the crop. Meantime Lancashire is doing a big business with the Far East as well as with Mediterranean ports and South America.

The Liverpool market has latterly been strong and more active. European trade is in far more bullish position than American. There are those who think that cotton is unduly high or if that is not the case that present prices at least amply discount anything at all bullish in the situation. They believe that the crop is 12,500,000 to 13,000,000 bales and that the trade outlook for 1911 is not very promising owing, as they think, to a widespread tendency among the people to economize, partly owing to the continued high cost of living. The New York stock of cotton too, is rapidly increasing. Suthern hedge selling is persistent and, as already intimated, the speculation is still more or less narow. Large spot interests have at times been very heavy sellers. Liverpool has sold here to a greater or less extent. Some houses with large Southern connections are still apparently bearish believing the crop to be larger than is generally supposed. In the main, however, the bullish spirit has dominated the market and as prices have got into new high ground some experienced men say they would not be surprised to see a further rise.

THE OUTLOOK FOR TRADE.

Demand for Holiday Goods Feature—Trade in General is Irregular.

New York, Nov. 25.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Demand for holiday goods is becoming more prominent and developments in this respect are responsible for whatever expansion has occurred in trade this week. Novelties, jewelry and such articles as are appropriate to the season are in good request, and the consensus of reports indicates that trade is in excess of last year's. But trade in general has become more irregular. Retail trade reports seem to have lost some of the relative activity displayed last week. For instance, the South as a whole reports a certain degree of betterment, due probably to the good movement of cotton at high prices, while warm weather hampers distribution of seasonable merchandise in the Southwest; but in the Northwest trade is quite active. In the Central West trade shows a slight increase, but in the East the turn over is disappointing. Collections the country over range from slow to good.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending November 24th were 212 against 248 last week and 217 in the like week in 1909.

SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON.

Brought About by Higher Markets Abroad and Crop Estimates.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 25.—Higher markets abroad over the holiday and the appearance of several more low crop estimates brought a sharp advance in this market today, practically the only cotton for sale from spot people in the natufre of hedges, and only longs, who were naturally taking profits on the rise.

Wall Street houses were again large buyers and the Southwest also bought freely, followed by our local traders, who are convinced that higher prices are likely before the bureau.

The into sight figures for the week ar very heavy, and the movement is now ahead of that of last year to date at a time when last year's receipts fell off rapidly. In the present temper of the trade, however, large receipts passed unnoticed, while the heavier spinners takings were responsible for the last advance just before the close. It is generally believed that the market will go higher before the bureau, and this is quite likely to be the case, as no opposition is to be anticipated on the eve of what is universally expected to be a small estimate.

STOCK MARKET NEARLY IDLE

New York, Nov. 25.—The neglect of the stock market left it nearly idle today and the price movement was the merest drift. There was practically no outside participation in the dealings and the floor traders operated in a languid way with small hope of producing any effects that would yield a profit.

While the holiday period was called responsible for the neglect in part, it is recognized that deeper laying causes also are at work. Apprehension is growing that the period of trade revival must be set forward to some time next year. The distinct easing in the money market fails to bring improved investment demand for bonds and the railroads are forced to restrict themselves to only the most necessary borrowing. Announcement was made today of the sale of the $700,000 remainder of 4 1-2 per cent. equipment trust notes of the New York Central lines, which were authorized to the amount of $30,000,000, the public service commission attaching the condition that they must not be sold for less than 97 per cent. The continued abstention of the railroad from placing orders freely for material detracts from the effect of the professions of confidence that freight rate advances are practically assured.

Incidents in connection with the rate hearings, in fact, serve to keep the subject open to continual uncertainty.

The week's currency movement has been in favor of the New York banks, both from the interior and on subtreasury operations, and a gain of nearly $5,000,000 in cash, allowing for a $500,000 shipment of gold to Canada is promised by the preliminary estimates.

The action of the stock exchange authorities in admitting Lehigh Valley to the list gave some slight impetus to the speculation in Reading. There were rumors also that a decision was imminent in the anthracite trust cases in the United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia. Union Pacific ended 1-4c higher than on Wednesday, Reading unchanged and United States Steel 1-8 lower. The narrowness of the whole market was typified in these stocks.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,682,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today 179,300 shares.

MAN PICKED UP AT SEA.

Found in Helpless Motor Boat—A Florida Fisherman.

New York, Nov. 25.—Captain Colcord, of the Str. American in port tonight from Puerto Mexico, reported a passenger not on the list when the vessel started. He is Thomas Hall, a fisherman of Stewart, Fla., who was found on November 22nd frantically waving his shirt as he stood in his 25-foot motor boat, helplessly adrift. A big wave had put his engines out of commission.

The liner went out of her course and drew near for the rescue, but Hall insisted that his boat also be taken aboard. The wind was blowing 30 miles an hour, but after more than an hour's work the little craft was gotten on deck.

Hall had drifted more than 50 miles from his starting point when picked up, and it has been five days since he left home. On landing he telegraphed his wife who doubtless thought him drowned.

Later, Delegate Carvalho again went to the Sao Paulo carrying conditions of surrender to the mutineers. The crew, however, declared intention not to give in until Congress voted a measure of general amnesty.

On Wednesday night the mutinying ships withdrew from the harbor, but returned on Friday at noon. The French training ship Duguay Trouin left the harbor without hindrance on Wednesday afternoon. The band of the Minas Geraes saluted the French ship with the "Marseillaise."

TEST OF PURE FOOD LAWS.

Two Score Depositions Are Taken for The Federal Court.

Montgomery, Nov. 25.—Almost fifty depositions taken in nearly every section of the United States are in the hands of the clerk of the Federal court at Montgomery preparatory to a pure food hearing against an East St. Louis, Ill., concern, before Judge Thomas G. Jones on December 13, which, it is believed, will have a wide effect on the interpretation of the pure food law of the country as they relate to stock feed.

UNION MEN MISTREATED.

Federation of Labor Protest Against Conditions in Florida.

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—The American Federation of Labor tonight unanimously adopted resolutions protesting to Governor Gilchrist, of Florida, against alleged so-called mistreatment of the union men in the Tampa Cigar Makers' strike troubles, and demanded that the governor accord adequate protection to the striking men.

The protest followed the receipt of a telegram by President Samuel Gompers announcing that a man named Johnson, an organizer for the union stationed at Tampa, had been ordered out of town by the citizens today.

The Florida governor and the mayor and sheriff were subjects of condemnation earlier in the day when President Gompers and other delegates declared that union men were not receiving the protection of the authorities. The president in a speech declared that with three men in prison and one dead as the result of lynching, it was time for something to be done.

President Gampers declared that the Union cigar makers now imprisoned in the Tampa jail had to be guarded by their fellow union men to prevent a lynching.

"I have repeatedly asked the Governor of Florida." he said, "to investigate the trouble at Tampa, but he has always assured me that the matter was under control by the local authorities.

"I have furnished the mayor of Tampa and the sheriff there, as well as the governor, with detailed information as to the seriousness of the situation and have asked the governor to inevstigate, but he tells me that he can act only in conformity with the laws, and authority vested in him. That is all the satisfaction I can get.

"There never has been a time during the strike that the International officers of this Federation were not willing to make an adjustment of this difficulty, but if the Manufacturers' Association will not confer with us we will put all of our strength into Tampa, to win the strike of the cigar workers."

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 25.—S. J. Johnson, of Chicago, organizer of the National Cigar Makers' Union, who has been in Tampa about eight months, accepted the advice of the citizens' protective committee this morning and left this city. He bought a ticket to Jacksonville. It is said that no threats were made against the organizer, but it was feared he would be harshly dealt with.

Following the departure of Johnson statements were wired to President Gompers at St. Louis in which it was alleged that Johnson had been ordered to leave the city. President Gompers made a protest to Governor Gilchrist who referred the matter to Mayor McKay.

The present strike, involving nearly 10,000 workmen, is attributed indirectly to Johnson.
